INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING NAVMC FORM 11411 REQUEST FOR LEGAL SERVICES (RLS)

1. Enter full name of the accused (Last, First, Middle Initial).

2. Enter the grade of the accused (E1-O9).

3. Select the service of the accused from the drop-down menu.

4. Enter the accused's projected End of Active Service date from his/her official military personnel file.

5. Enter the unit of the accused. Include the battalion /squadron level up to the first GCMCA level and the duty station. Example: 1stBn, 2dMarReg, 2dMarDiv, Camp Lejeune, NC.

6. Enter the Armed Forces Active Duty Base Date for the accused from his/her official military personnel file.

7. Enter the accused's primary and billet MOS.

8. Select the type of service requested from the drop-down menu. Example: Special Court-Martial. Services not listed in the drop-down menu may be freely typed into the field.

9. Select from the drop-down menu whether the accused has refused an alternate disposition or if no alternate disposition has been offered. Example: Yes

Battalion DNP

10. If requesting an administrative separation board, specify the primary basis for separation from the drop-down menu. For boards of inquiry, the basis may be freely typed into the field.

11. Enter Accused's DoD EDIPI number (10 digits).

12. Briefly summarize the misconduct of which the accused is suspected

13. Select from the drop-down menu whether the accused has been subject to ANY confinement, restriction, or conditions on liberty. If so, answer blocks 14, 15, and 16.

14. Enter the date the accused's block 13 status began.

15. Select whether the accused's block 13 status is still in effect. If no, answer block 16.

16. Enter the date the accused's block 13 status ended.

17. Enter the name of the convening authority who will refer charges (Summary or Special Court-Martial), forward charges (Art 32) or convene the administrative board. Per MCO P5800.16_, the convening authority for sexual assaults must be Colonel (O-6).

18. Enter the name and billet of the person who will notify the accused of the nature of the charges in accordance with R.C.M. 308.

19. - 30. Enter the name and contact information for each of the command points of contact relating to the accused's case.

31. Select ALL evidentiary items that exist in the case and are in the command's possession. Attach them (including any enclosures) to the RLS.

32. Select ALL evidentiary items that exist and may not be in the command's possession.

33. Indicate whether or not ANY command member has interviewed or had any discussion with the accused formally or informally about the suspected misconduct. If yes, answer blocks 34 and 35.

34. - 35. Enter the name and contact information for any person indicated by the “Yes” answer to block 33

36. Use this block for any additional information or instructions not listed above and to include information for which there is insufficient space above.

37. Sign and enter the date the COMPLETED RLS is submitted to the trial services section or administrative services section.