_____ I understand that these items are the property of Marine Corps Community Services (MCCS).

_____ I understand that all items are to be returned cleaned and in the same condition as received.

_____ I understand that an extension MAY be granted by the Relocation Assistance Program (RAP) office if contact is made on or before the initial due date.

_____ I understand that failure to return items results in decreased service provision to other Service members and their families.

_____ I understand that failure to return items requires me to replace the missing item(s). I further understand that Marine and Family Programs reserves the right to send a Letter of Recoupment to my command if I do not return items and do not respond to communication from the RAP office.

_____ I acknowledge that I have had the opportunity to inspect the lended items carefully and received answers to my questions, if any, on how to use these items. I accept full responsibility for the care of the items lended.

_____ I have had the opportunity to ask questions on how to use the lended items.

I have received a release form for an item(s) that maybe seen as rise to risk of harm (e.g., baby seat, high chair, crib, etc). The form has been prepared by or in coordination with local supporting MCCS Counsel.
