S

INSTRUCTIONS

1. This cetificate is designated for establishing the fact of U.S. citizenship of a foreign-born applicant, and recording the information used to establish the fact. The certificate will be complete prior to initial enlistment of the individual as follows:

a. Prepare in duplicate for those applicants born outside the United States, Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands.

b. Indicate by an X in the appropriate square(s) the method(s) by which the applicant obtained citizenship. Remember that it takes a combination of two of the methods numbered from 2 to 5 for a foreign born applicant to obtain U.S. citizenship, except:

(1) Where one of his parents is dead and the survivor is a naturalized citizen.

(2) Where his parents are legally separated and the parent having legal custody is a naturalized citizen.

2. Original. Forward to the activity effecting the enlistment for submission to the Commandant of the Marine Corps (Code MMSB-10) as a supporting document to the duplicate of the enlistment contract.

3. Duplicate. Will be retained in recruiting station files.
