REPORT OF HOME OF RECORD AND PLACE FROM WHICH ORDERED TO ACTIVE DUTY
NAVPERS 1070/74 (Rev. 10-2024) Supporting Directive MILPERSMAN 1000-100

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

AUTHORITY: 5 USC 301, Department Regulations.
PURPOSE: To determine entitlements to travel and transportation allowances.
ROUTINE USES: Department of the Navy personnel involved in administering the purpose above.
DISCLOSURE: Voluntary, however, failure to provide the requested information may result in entitlement to travel and transportation allowances to be denied.

I. INSTRUCTIONS

1. General. In general, members are entitled to receive travel and transportation allowances for travel performed or to be performed under competent orders (1) upon appointment or call to active duty, from home or from the place from which ordered to active duty to first duty station, and (2) upon separation from the Service, placement upon the temporary disability retired list, release from active duty, or retirement from last duty station to home or to the place from which ordered to active duty (see MILPERSMAN 1000-100). This form is used for determining entitlements to allowances under these situations; therefore, extreme care must be used in preparing this document. Once prepared, signed, and submitted, entries hereon may not be changed or corrected unless specifically authorized by Commander, Navy Personnel Command.

2. Preparation

a. This document may be prepared in duplicate. The member must complete all blocks and sign and date the form:

(1) When commissioned or appointed to officer status for immediate active duty.

(2) When commissioned or appointed to officer status in a Reserve component, not ordered to immediate active duty - enter "Not Applicable" in the blocks captioned "Place From Which Ordered to Active Duty" and "Date of Entry on Active Duty."

(3) When an officer or enlisted reservist is recalled to active duty from an inactive status after a break in active service that exceeds 1 day (more than 24 hours)

b. "Home of Record" and "Place From Which Ordered To Active Duty" entries may be determined by referring to the GUIDES provided on the reverse of this form.

c. The certifying officer may be the commanding officer or a member authorized to sign Service record documents per MILPERSMAN 1070-190

3. Disposition.

a. For newly commissioned officers:

(1) Original: Forward to Navy Personnel Command (NAVPERSCOM) Officer Accession and Promotions Branch (PERS-806) along with the other documents required to create the new officer permanent personnel record.

(2) Duplicate: Return to the member for retention in his or her personal files.

b. For changes authorized as a result of a break in service:

(1) Original: Forward to NAVPERSCOM (PERS-312) Records Analysis Branch.

(2) Duplicate: Return to the member for retention in his or her personal files.

II. GUIDES

1. This guide is furnished to assist in completing entries on the obverse side of this form. Certifying officers must give full consideration to all documents in the member's Service record or in their personal possession which relate to the occasion and bear directly on the item being determined.

a. Home of Record (HOR). The place declared by the Service member to be the permanent home or actual home of the member when commissioned, appointed, enlisted, inducted, or ordered into a tour of active duty.

(1) Use the following table to determine a home of record:

Occasion	Home of Record
An individual commissioned, appointed, enlisted, inducted, or ordered into a tour of active duty.	The place declared by the Service member to be the permanent home or actual home of the member.
An officer appointed from active enlisted status.	Remains the same as that recorded on the DD 4 Enlistment/ Reenlistment Document-Armed Forces of the United States in effect at the time of appointment.
An enlisted member immediately reenlisted with no break in active service.	Remains the same as that recorded on the DD 4 in effect at the time of reenlistment.
An enlisted member reenlisted after a break in active service that exceeds 1 day (more than 24 hours).	The place declared by the Service member to be the permanent home or actual home of the member at the time of reenlistment into the new period of active duty. The new HOR may be recorded on the new DD 4.
An officer or enlisted member recalled to active duty from an inactive status, after a break in active service that exceeds 1 day (more than 24 hours).	The place declared by the Service member to be the permanent home or actual home of the member when ordered into a tour of active duty. If different from the HOR currently recorded in the Service record, the new HOR, for officer and enlisted members, may be recorded on the NAVPERS 1070/74 Report of Home of Record and Place From Which Ordered to Active Duty.
