CHANGES TO TELEWORK ARRANGEMENT

1. Employees who telework must be available to work at the traditional worksite on telework days on an occasional basis if necessitated by work requirements. Requests by employees to change their scheduled telework day in a particular week or biweekly pay period should be accommodated by supervisors wherever practicable, consistent with mission requirements.

2. A permanent change in the telework arrangement must be reflected in a new Telework Agreement.

WORK-AT-HOME TELEWORK

1. It is the responsibility of employees to ensure that a proper work environment is maintained while teleworking.

2. Work-at-home teleworkers must complete and sign a safety checklist that proclaims the home safe for an official home worksite, to ensure that all the requirements to do official work are met in an environment that allows the tasks to be performed safely. Employees agree to permit access to the home worksite by agency representatives as required, during normal working hours, to repair or maintain Government-furnished equipment, and to ensure compliance with the terms of this Telework Agreement.

3. For work at home arrangements, employees are required to designate one area in the home as the official work or office area that is suitable for the performance of official Government business. The Government's potential exposure to liability is restricted to this official work or office area for the purposes of telework.

4. Employees acknowledge that telework is not a substitute for dependent care.

5. The Government is not responsible for any operating costs that are associated with employees using their personal residence as an alternative worksite, including home maintenance, insurance, or utilities.
