OFFICIAL DUTY STATION

Employee's official duty station for such purposes as special salary rates, locality pay adjustments, and travel is _____.
The official duty station corresponds to that found on the most recent SF 50, Notification of Personnel Action.

TIME AND ATTENDANCE, WORK PERFORMANCE AND OVERTIME

1. Time spent in a teleworking status must be accounted for and reported in the same manner as if employees reported for duty at the traditional worksite.

2. Employees are required to satisfactorily complete all assigned work, consistent with the approach adopted for all other employees in the work group, and per standards and guidelines in the employee's performance plan.

3. Employees agree to work overtime only when ordered and approved by supervisors in advance. Employees who work overtime without such prior approval may be subject to administrative or disciplinary action.

SECURITY AND EQUIPMENT

1. No classified documents (hard copy or electronic) may be taken to an employee's alternative worksite. For regular and recurring telework, sensitive unclassified material, including Privacy Act and For Official Use Only data, may only be used by teleworkers provided with Government-furnished equipment. Employees are responsible for the security of all official data, protection of any Government-furnished equipment and property, and carrying out the mission of Department of Navy (DON) at the alternative worksite. Government-furnished equipment must only be used for official duties and family members and friends of teleworkers are not authorized to use any Government furnished equipment.

2. Where employees have been approved by the Component Designated Approving Authority (DAA) to use their personal computers and equipment for telework on non-sensitive unclassified data, remote access software must not be loaded into employee's personal computers for official purposes. Employees are responsible for the installation, repair and maintenance of all personal equipment.

3. The activity is responsible for the maintenance of all Government-furnished equipment. Employees may be required to bring such equipment into the office for maintenance. Employees must return all Government-furnished equipment and materials to the agency at the conclusion of teleworking arrangements or at the activity's request.
