Navy Judge Advocate General's Corps Internship/Externship Program Application

By submitting this application along with all required documents, you are competing against other law school students for a summer internship or school year externship (hereinafter "internship" or "externship") with the United States Navy Judge Advocate General's Corps (JAG Corps). All positions are volunteer, unpaid, civilian internships. The Navy will not provide funding for travel, lodging, or per diem of any kind except in limited circumstances for travel from the internship location for the purpose of performing work when authorized in advance by the Office of the Judge Advocate General. The applicant is solely responsible for making all travel and living arrangements.

Data Required by the Privacy Act of 1974

AUTHORITY: 5 U.S.C. 301; 5 U.S.C. Chapters 11, 13, 29, 31, 33, 41, 43, 51, 53, 55, 61, 63, 72, 75, 83, 99; 5 U.S.C. 7201; 5 U.S.C. 3111; 10 U.S.C. 136; 10 U.S.C. 5013; 10 U.S.C. 806; Title 10 USC 87 and Rule 13A; E.O. 9830, 29 CFR 1614.601; SECNAV Instruction 12250.6; and E.O. 9397 (SSN), as amended, SORN N01070-1 and SORN N12293-1.

PRINCIPAL PURPOSE: To evaluate an applicant's qualifications for selection to participate in the U.S. Navy Office of the Judge Advocate General's Corps (JAGC) Internship and Externship Programs; to make personnel and assignment decisions concerning applicants selected to participate in the program; to develop policies and procedures, compile statistics, and render analytical reports for the program; to provide the Commander, Navy Recruiting Command and Navy JAGC officials data for recruitment purposes; to make decisions on recruiting efforts and training.

ROUTINE USES: Information will be collected and accessed exclusively by the Office of the Judge Advocate personnel for the purpose of screening and selecting applicants for the JAGC Internship and Externship programs. Additionally, those disclosures generally permitted under the `Blanket Routine Uses' 5 U.S.C of the Privacy Act of 1974 may apply.

DISCLOSURE: Disclosure is voluntary, however, failure to provide requested information may result in non-selection.
