PART E - CRITICAL ELEMENTS

Critical elements are work assignments, goals, objectives, or responsibilities of such importance that unacceptable performance on the element would result in a determination that an employee's overall performance is unacceptable. A critical element must be sufficiently specific in nature so as to be understandable by the employee and assessable by a rating official, be comprehensive enough to span the entire rating period or a substantial portion thereof, and must be commensurate with the employee's grade, experience, and position requirements. A performance plan must have a minimum of two, but generally between three and five critical elements, that address individual expectations and goals.
