Guidance for Completing Command Senior Enlisted Leader Assignment Preference

1. The Command Senior Enlisted Leader (CSEL) Assignment Preference is used by the Director, Command Senior Enlisted Leader Management Office (D-CSELMO) during the Nominative Talent Management System (NTMS) process to aid in the assignment of personnel to the best-fit position, based on an individual's skills, talent and experience.

2. For Geographic Location and Type Duty, in addition to completing the specific blocks, ensure you indicate which is of greater importance.

3. When listing Assignment Limitations, ensure that you also note the relevant reference (i.e. for a dual military couple, MILPERSMAN 1300-1000)

4. History of Assignments should begin at Basic Training to your current billet. Be succinct.

5. Education should be higher education (post high school) and any Navy professional development milestones. Do not list “F” or “C” schools in this area. If mentioning uncompleted degrees, do not list individual college courses taken. Do not list General Military Training, Joint Knowledge Online courses, or other online military courses of instruction.

6. The signature may be “wet” or electronic in nature.

7. Upon completion, forward your CSEL Assignment Preference to th
