Sexual Assault Prevention and Response (SAPR) Program Command Assessment Tool

COMMANDING OFFICER

1. When did the Commanding Officer (CO) assume command?
2. When did the Command Triad receive the CO's Toolkit Brief from the Regional, Installation or Lead SARC?

3. Has the SARC or Deployed Resiliency Counselor:

a. Informed the command of the potential impact of State laws governing the reporting requirements for adult sexual assault that may affect compliance with the DoD restricted reporting option? ☐ YES ☐ NO

b. Developed or revised applicable memorandums of understanding/agreements (MOUs/MOAs) as appropriate? ☐ YES ☐ NO

4. When did the Command Triad receive the SAPR brief regarding Military Rule of Evidence 514, retaliation, the SA-Initial Disposition Authority, and State/local victim advocate privilege laws from a judge advocate?

5. Was a command climate assessment completed as required? ☐ YES ☐ NO

a. Date most recent command climate assessment completed? _____

b. List follow-up actions taken ICO concerns from the command climate assessment:

COMMAND DEMOGRAPHICS/SPECIFICS

	Military	Civilian
6. How many military and civilian personnel are assigned to the command?

7. Number of unrestricted reports of sexual assaults reported within the last 24 months?
8. Number of victims in the command within the last 24 months:
9. Number of alleged offenders in the command within the last 24 months:

10. Indicate trends in frequency/types of reports (e.g., more before, during, or after deployments, same location, etc.):

11. Is aggregate information used to assist senior-level commanders to better understand and manage trends and characteristics of sexual assault crimes at the Navy level and to better understand and mitigate the risk factors that may be present within the associated environment?	☐ YES ☐ NO

12. How are command personnel made aware of the following resources:

a. SARC, Deployed Resiliency Counselor, SAPR VA, Unit SAPR VA, Victims' Legal Counsel, healthcare provider, and chaplain:

b. DoD Safe Helpline: