INSTRUCTIONS
(THIS SIDE UNCLASSIFIED)

1. This log provides for the recording of active sonar search and contact data.
2. Standard Instructions for Ship Operational Data Forms (OPNAV 3100/1) apply.
3. Make a line entry as directed by the OPORD or as required by higher command.
4. Start a new sheet whenever the date or time zone changes.

BOX	DATA ENTRY
18-21	TIME: Enter the time associated with this line entry. If significant, use the last two columns to record seconds.
23-25	TRUE BEARING: Enter the true bearing in degrees.
26-28	TRUE D/E: Enter "+" or "-" in column 26, and enter true depression/ elevation angle in degrees in columns 27-28. If stability is off or not installed, enter "RELATIVE D/E" in remarks.
29-30	POWER SETTING: Enter the power level control setting in dB down from full power.
31-32	BEAM: Enter beam from code below: MN Omnidirectional SL Single TB Tri-beam BO Tri-beam omni XX Other (describe in remarks)
33-34	CW or FM: Enter "CW" or "FM" to indicate mode if sonar has both CW and FM transmission capability.
35-36	RANGE SCALE: Enter sonar range scale setting in kiloyards.
37-39	PULSE LENGTH: Enter sonar pulse length in milliseconds.
40-41	$L_N - N_{DI}$: Enter noise level at active sonar frequency in spectrum level re microbar, omitting the minus sign.
42-44	FREQUENCY FOR $L_N - N_{DI}$: Enter the center frequency for the band used for measuring the noise level.
45-49	REVERBERATION RANGE: Enter the reverberation range in yards.
50-52	TRUE BEARING: Enter the true bearing of the echo received in degrees.
53-55	TRUE D/E: Enter "+" or "-" in column 53, and enter the true depression/elevation angle of the echo received in columns 54-55.
56-60	RANGE: Enter the range of the sonar return in yards.
61-77	REMARKS: Enter remarks pertinent to the line entry. Remarks related to a previous line entry but occurring at a different time shall be recorded on a separate line. Include contact classification in this section. If the remarks section is not long enough, enter "z" in col 23 and use the rest of the line for remarks, ignoring the column markings.
