3. RAM AIR PARACHUTES:		SOPR QAI
		Printed Name	Signature	Date
a. Describe the methods of activation for the main and reserve parachute system(s) assigned.
b. Describe the components and function of the AAD for the applicable parachute system(s) assigned.
c. Describe the scheduled and unscheduled maintenance for the applicable parachute system(s) assigned.
d. Locate the pertinent air operations technical manuals and instructions for applicable parachute system(s) assigned.
e. Inspect a complete pack tray assembly.
f. Inspect and properly install a main pilot chute bridle line.
g. Verify a canopy control line setting and adjust as necessary.
h. Verify canopy trim setting.
i. Inspect and install a reserve canopy.
j. Inspect and install a main canopy.
k. Perform a ripcord pull test.
l. Detangle and place a main parachute into proper four line.
m. Install an AAD into a parachute system.
n. Calculate the proper FSDs of a parachute system, to include main and reserve canopies, harness, and any other applicable components in accordance with applicable manuals, and mark the FSDs on the affected components.
o. Perform three 182-day inspections under instruction, with the applicable manuals, and verify the parachute history record.	(1)
	(2)
	(3)
4. STATIC LINE PARACHUTES
a. Describe the capabilities and characteristics of the MC-6 parachute.
b. Describe the capabilities and characteristics of the T-11R parachute.
c. Describe the methods of activation for the main and reserve parachutes.
d. Describe the scheduled and unscheduled maintenance on both the MC-6 and T-11R parachutes.
e. Locate the pertinent air operations technical manuals and technical directives for the MC-6 and T-11R parachutes.
f. Inspect a complete reserve pack tray assembly.				