INSTRUCTION BRIEF FOR COURIERS OF NATO CLASSIFIED DOCUMENTS CERTIFICATION

It has been found necessary to appoint you as an official courier to carry NATO classified material. Your courier authorization will accord the material you are carry immunity from search and examination by Customs and Immigration officials of the countries whose borders you cross.

You are reminded of the following precautions which you will observe for the protection of the classified material that you will carry:

1. The package or bags containing the classified material must be covered by an official seal to prevent customs examination.

2. A list of all NATO classified documents you will carry must be inventoried and recorded by the appropriate office of your department, agency, or command prior to you departure.

3. Throughout the journey and while at destination, the classified material must never leave your possession unless deposited in a place of safety as provided for under the security arrangements of the diplomatic or military missions or commands of this country, national ministry or the host country, or with a NATO international agency.

4. NATO classified material must not be discussed in public places such as hotels or lounges.

5. NATO classified material must not be read in aircraft, trains, ships, or any other vehicles.

6. NATO classified material must not be left unattended in hotel rooms, staterooms on trains or ships, or stored in repositories, such as hotel safes. Your may delegate your responsibility for direct surveillance of the classified material you are carrying only under the security arrangement of a United States diplomatic mission, United States military command, a host NATO government, or a NATO international agency.

7. Upon your return, the classified documents (or receipts for them is they are delivered into the custody of another authorized recipient) must be inventoried against the list prepared before departure. Should any NATO classified documents be acquired, the COSMIC control officer, or designated officer of your department, agency, or command will pick up accountability.

Some of the measures necessary to sustain good security may be cumbersome, especially when at the end of a tiring day's work a journey to some other part of the city is necessary to deposit your papers in a place of safety. It is easy to persuade one's self that no harm will be done by keeping the papers overnight in the hotel or some equally insecure place. In reality, a person is presenting an easy target for the agents of foreign intelligence services by so doing and the records of the security services of NATO countries contain cases of loss or compromise of documents attributable to this dangerous practice. Should you encounter any security difficulties during your trip, please bring them to the attention of this office so that remedies may be worked out for the benefit of other NATO travelers.
